

Hopkinton Public Library Children's Room Display Policy

The Hopkinton Public Library Children's Room welcomes exhibits and displays that will educate, inform, or entertain the community.

Children age 12 and under may request the space in the children's circulation desk for an exhibit or display. Items must be no larger than 4" w x 6" h. There are two 5' curved shelves in the front of the desk and two 1' shelves on the side of the desk, and all items must fit on these shelves.

The display is seen by children of all ages so must not contain offensive material.

All exhibits and/or displays must be scheduled through library staff.

Exhibits shall be displayed for a time not to exceed 1 month. The exhibitor is responsible for set up and take down with a staff member. The display items must be picked up within three (3) days after the end date of the display period. There is no storage available for display items and the library is not responsible for any loss or damage of items.